DATE ACQUIRED		This is UNEVALUATED Information

1. It was reported at the end of June 1955 that the Polish writer, essayist, and art critic, Jerzy Wyszomirski,¹ had recently committed suicide with illuminating gas. He was driven to this course as the result of a nervous breakdown occasioned by his difficulties with the Communist Party and censorship authorities. He had written a number of works in the field of cultural history but could find no publisher or periodical which would take them. 25X1
2. Wyszomirski was originally from Wilno (now Vilnyus) but had lived in Lodz* (1931-45, 1949-55) since 1945. He is survived by a wife and daughter.

1. Comment. This writer is not further identified. 25X1
